This card was so fun and easy to create. Make sure you read the helpful tips before you start creating.

Measurements

Cardbase

Real Red 5 1/2" x 8 1/2", scored at 4 1/4"

Pear Pizzazz 4 1/8" x 5 3/8" - Cut with the #4 from the outside Rectangle Stitched Die
DSP 4" x 5 1/4"

with Rectangle Stitched dies:

Real Red 3rd die from the largest

Pear Pizzazz - use the 4th from the largest (cut out the center of the panel listed above)

If you want to use measurements instead of dies:

Real Red 3" x 4 1/8"

Pear Pizzazz 2 7/8" x 4" - embossed with the Winter Snow Embossing Folder

Smaller layer panels can be used with the Rectangle Stitched dies or cut with a trimmer. I prefer using the dies because they add a little character with the stitched finish, however I thought of this AFTER I created this card. I use the dies in the video. From the outside in, I used die # 3 and 4.

Tag Layer

Whisper White 2" x 3 1/4" - Stamp Reindeer on this image with Black Memento ink

DSP 2" x 3 1/2" - I like to make the DSP a little longer so it shows more of the fun print.

Color

Stampin' Blends alcohol markers

Bronze- color the antlers and hoofs.

Both Cinnamon Cider blends to color the reindeer.

Real Red blends to color the ribbon/bow.

Tips

I have my DSP Cut to 4" x 6" so when I got the DSP down to 5 1/4" keep the remaining 3/4" for the trim on the inside of the card. This DSP is so fun and every piece matches. You can choose any of the patterns for the flap on the envelope.

Use the Scalloped Tag Topper punch to create the scalloped top. Because the card is a "cute and fun" card, I tied the ribbon in a bow at the top vs. adding the trim as a tag topper.

I used the Itty Bitty Christmas stamp set. I liked the fun font of the "lots of love at Christmas" sentiment. It fit perfectly along the bottom of the tag on the top of the card.
